Southern Historical Society. ANNUAL MEETING LAST NIGHT-ANNUAL RE-PORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE-OBI-

TUARY, &C. The Southern Historical Society held its annual meeting in the hall of the House of Delegates last night. General Early, president of the Society, called the meeting to order and presided. The annual report of the Executive Committee was next read by the Secretary. The report begins with a sketch of the origin and history of the Society. Of the operathat "we have made more real progress and have been able to place the Society on a firmer basis than ever before. Our membership is now larger than ever; our re-ceipts for the year have been $15,000 greater than during any previous year; we have received most valuable contributions to our archives; we have been granted free access to the archive office of the War Department; and our Papers have grown in favor, while the importance of our work is more widely appreciated than ever before.

"We have completed a carefully-compiled catalogue of our official reports, and are now preparing a similar one of all of our other material.

"The value of our collection may be seen from the simple statement that we shall be able to supply the Archive Bureau at Washington with many important additions to their collection.

"We have continued to issue regularly our monthly (Southern Historical Society Papers), and are glad to report an increased subscription and a growing appreciation of the value of the publication. We contemplate increasing the size of our monthly and making other important improvements just so soon as our subscription list will justify, and we appeal to our friends to help in extending our circulation.

"We published in the November No. of the Papers so full an account of our relations with the "Archive Bureau," and our efforts to obtain access to the documents, &c., on file there, that little need be said here concerning it. We continue to receive from General Townsend and his subordinates every kindness and courtesy, and our arrangements for the exchange of papers are entirely satisfactory. The following table of receipts will show that the past year has been the most prosperous one which the Society has had:

ber, 1878..... 6,337 14 "Thus it will be seen that, in spite of hard times, our receipts have been $1,592.96 more than during any prevous year. "And we have so far reduced our expenses that during the past year our receipts have considerably exceeded our current expenditures; and but for the debt with which we begun our fiscal year we would now be able to report our obligations all met and money in the treasury. But we greatly need more funds to enable us to enlarge our operations, and we appeal to our friends everywhere to help us as they "If you cannot imitate the noble liberality of Mr. Corcoran, who has given us $500 year for the past three years, you can at To least help to circulate our publications and extend our list of subscribers. "We are satisfied that if we could secure reliable and efficient canvassers in every State we could soon swell our membership by thousands." The report was unanimously adopted.

General Maury announced the death of Colonel D. W. Floweree, of Vicksburg, a life-member of the Society, and paid an appropriate tribute to his memory-the Society voting to spread appropriate resolutions on the record. Earnest remarks in reference to the interests of the Society were made by Generals D. H. Maury, W. B. Taliaferro, J. A. Early, and Marcus J. Wright, Colonel C. S. Venable, General J. G. Field, and others.

The meeting was one of interest, and there was a general expression of gratification at the prosperous and hopeful condition of the Society.

OUR SOLDIER GUESTS-ARRIVAL OF THE OLD DOMINION GUARD AND PENINSULA GUARD .- Yesterday afternoon the Old Dominion Guard, of Portsmouth, and the Peninsula Guard, of Hampton, arrived in the city per the steamer Ariel, and were met at the wharf by a detachment from each com-pany of the First regiment under Captain Jones, of Company B, and escorted to their quarters at the Regimental Armory, headed Jones and Thomas H. Fisher, by the band from the Soldiers' Home at Hampton. The Old Dominion Guard number about thirty-five men, rank and file, and are officered as follows: Captain, H. C. Hudgins; Lieutenant, James M. Bintord. R. L. Herbert is the First Sergeant. The company is also accompanied by its surgeon, Dr. L. A.

The Peninsula Guard number forty men in all. Its officers are: Captain, S. B. Wood; Lientenants, William T. Dougherty, R. H. Wilson, and G. M. Richter; Surgeon, J. H. Peek; and First Sergeant, H. C. Marrow.

Each company has with it its company flag, and each claims that its flag is the most beautiful extant. Where rivalry so equal strives it is only necessary to say that both are the most beautiful, as indeed they are each splendid specimens of workmanship.

JACKSON'S VALLEY CAMPAIGN .- Colonel William Allan will deliver the annual address before the Association of the Virginia Division of the Army of Northern Virginia in the hall of the House of Delegates tonight at 8 o'clock. Subject: Jackson's Valley Campaign.

Tickets to the annual banquet, which will take place immediately after the address, may be had of the secretaries and members of the Executive Committee; and the sale of them is not limited to soldiers or members of the Association, as some have supposed, but may be purchased by any gentleman in sympathy with the Association and known to any officer or member of the Association.

The public generally-ladies, of courseare invited to hear the annual address by Colonel William Allan.

HELEN D'ESTE AT MOZART HALL .- A VERY appreciative and fashionable audience assembled at Mozart Hall last evening to witness the first production in Richmond of the great New York success, "A Celebrated Case." The play was placed upon the stage in a manner that reflected credit upon the stage-manager. Miss D'Este as the convict's daughter, Adrienne, made a very favorable impression upon her audience.

This lady is destined to rank with the leading emotional actresses of the modern stage. Her costumery is appropriate and yery elegant, and she will no doubt receive a liberal share of the patronage of the thea-tre-going public. Mr. Pritchard as Jean Renaud did credit to bimself. He is a careful, conscientious actor.

To-night Miss D'Este will appear in her original character of Rose Michel in the

A LARGE PIECE OF FLAMISH TAPESIRY, 16x22 feet in size, belonging to Mr. Edward Valentine, of this city, is now on exhibition at the store of Messrs. John H. Tyler & Co. The piece is a life-size representation of a Jewish sacrifice in the temple, with all its gorgeous surroundings, The tapestry is hand-worked, in silk and worsted, and was probably a production of the fifteenth century. It was purchased by its present owner from the private collection of a nobleman in Berlin. This is one of very few pieces in this country, and is much larger than any on exhibition at the Centennial.

POLICE COURT .- Justice White disposed f the following cases yesterday: Alexander Yancey and James Campbell both colored) were fined $1 each for disorderly conduct in the street. John Hagans was fined $1 for being drunk Thomas Cornick, a vagrant, was committed to jail for a few days in default of sure-
